How to register for Aplia

Professor: Brent Kreider
Course Key: G37B-GFVX-MYEG

You can begin working on your homework as soon as you register!

- In this course, you will use a textbook (digital, physical, or both) and Aplia's website.

- By registering for Aplia, all students will automatically have access to a digital version of the Hall & Lieberman textbook on Aplia through the end of this course. You may also wish to buy or rent a physical textbook (see details on course webpage).

- Aplia is part of CengageBrain, which allows you to sign in once and access your materials and courses.

Registration

2. If you already have an account, sign in. From your Dashboard, enter your course key (G37B-GFVX-MYEG) in the box provided, and click the Register button.

   If you don't have an account, click the Create an Account button, and enter your course key when prompted: G37B-GFVX-MYEG. Continue to follow the on-screen instructions.

   Note 1: Please do not forget to enter your section number: Section 4 for the 1:10 class or Section 5 for the 2:10 class.

   Note 2: Register with the same version of your name that you use for formal ISU documents (e.g., no nick-names). Otherwise, your Aplia scores might not be located when the instructor submits final grades to the registrar.

Payment

- After you register for your course, you will have a variety of payment options (see details on the course webpage). If you purchased an Aplia license at the bookstore, then you have already paid for the course. If you choose to pay later, you can use Aplia without paying until 11:59 PM on Sunday 09/12/2010.

- Please direct any problems working with Aplia (including registration) to the Aplia support staff. The Aplia webpage provides a FAQ link for frequently asked questions and provides an email link to obtain further assistance.
