Problem Sets

Problem set assignments would be handed out on Mondays but are not graded. These problem sets are to help you better understand the lectures and to better prepare you for the exams. The first problem set would be handed out on June 23.