

Case Study Scoring

60 Points Possible

25–35 minutes

Group Presenting: _____

Date: _____

Score: _____

1. Did the case study prepared by the group present an interesting and meaningful ethical scenario? [15pts]

2. Are the ethical issue(s) in the prepared case study complex enough to warrant a serious study? [5pts]

3. Is the case study open-ended, allowing multiple interpretations and solutions? [5pts]

4. Did the group make effective use of the learning teams and the time available for members of the class to analyze the case study? [25pts]
 - Was the class actively involved in discussing and analyzing the case study?
 - Did the Learning Community facilitate a discussion which helped the class apply the assigned topic?
 - Did the Learning Community facilitate a discussion using a variety of moral theories and principles?

5. Did the presenting group use factual premises and moral principles to construct their own valid/sound moral argument leading to a resolution of the moral dilemma(s) presented by the case study? [10pts]
 - a. Factual premises
 - b. Moral principles
 - c. Conclusions