

First Egg Industry Issues Forum

Hosted by the Egg Industry Center at Iowa State University

April 8, 2009

Embassy Suites on the River
101 East Locust Street
Des Moines, Iowa 50309
Phone: (515) 244-1700

- 08:15-08:30AM Welcome Remarks
Dr. Wendy Wintersteen, Endowed Dean of College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, Iowa State University
- 08:30-09:15AM Egg Production and the Social Concern for the Well-being of Laying Hens
Dr. Janice Swanson, Professor and Director of Animal Welfare, Michigan State University
- 09:15-10:00AM Antibiotics Risks in Egg Production
Dr. Paula Fedorka-Cray, Research Leader and Microbiologist, USDA-ARS Bacterial Epidemiology and Antimicrobial Resistance Research Unit, Athens, GA
- 10:00-10:30AM Break
- 10:30-11:15AM Limiting Feed Costs for Egg Production
Dr. Steve Leeson, Professor and Chair, Department of Animal and Poultry Science, University of Guelph, Canada
- 11:15A-12:00P Economic Issues of the Egg Production Industry
Mr. Don Bell, Professor and Poultry Specialist Emeritus, University of California-Riverside
- 12:00P-01:30P Lunch
Keynote Speech: The Economic Recession/Recovery, It's a Chicken and Egg Thing
Dr. John Lawrence, Professor of Economics, Iowa State University
- 01:30-02:00PM Air Emissions Research Relative to Egg Production
Dr. Hongwei Xin, Professor and Director of Egg Industry Center, Iowa State University
- 02:00-02:30PM Panel Q/A Session (all speakers)
- 02:30 PM Adjourn

Registration info available at <http://www.ans.iastate.edu/EIC>