

EASTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY

Chair, Department of Economics

The Department of Economics is seeking a Chair for a tenured twelve-month position at the associate or full professor level beginning July 1, 2008. We are seeking an individual who is committed to excellence in teaching, has an active program of scholarly research, and possesses leadership abilities. Evidence of academic administrative experience is required. The Chair is expected to administer and represent the department effectively, teach six hours per semester, and remain active as a scholar.

Applicants must have a Ph.D. in economics from a regionally (SACS, North Central, etc.) accredited or internationally recognized institution. Please submit curriculum vitae, evidence of administrative experience, and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three to five references online at <http://jobs.eku.edu>. The department will begin reviewing applications immediately. The search will continue until the position is filled. Review of applications will begin on April 7, 2008 and will continue until the position is filled.

Contact: Dr. Robert Brubaker, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Psychology, Cammack 127, Eastern Kentucky University, 521 Lancaster Avenue, Richmond, KY 40475-3102 or (Robert.Brubaker@eku.edu).

Offers of employment are contingent upon completion of satisfactory criminal background check and educational credential verification. Eastern Kentucky University is an EEO/AA institution that values diversity in its faculty, staff, and student body. In keeping with this commitment, the University welcomes applications from diverse candidates and candidates who support diversity.