

The Faculty of Agricultural Sciences of the Georg-August University of Goettingen invites applications for a full professorship (level W2)

in Farm Management
(successor of Prof. Manfred Koehne) for appointment as soon as possible.

He/she will be expected to carry out teaching and research in the area of farm management.

He/she will be expected to actively contribute to the faculty's major research areas (see the faculty's website), for instance by initiating EU-funded or other large collaborative research projects.

The professorship is involved in teaching in the faculty's study programs in "agribusiness" and "farm economics and management". The successful candidate will be expected to teach on the bachelor, master, and PhD level (including participation in the Goettingen Graduate School of Social Sciences).

The successful candidate will be expected to collaborate in research and teaching projects with neighbouring faculties and other universities and research institutions.

The requirements for an appointment to full professor are stipulated in § 25 of the University Law of Lower Saxony as of June 24, 2006 (Nds. GVBl 19/2002, p. 286), as amended through November 21, 2006 (Nds. GVBl 29/2006, p. 538). The Georg-August University of Goettingen, Public Law Foundation, was granted the right to appoint professorships. Detailed information is available on request.

Applications of researchers from international academic and research institutions are highly welcome.

A part time appointment by candidates is possible under certain circumstances. Subject to equivalent qualification, applications by candidates with disabilities will be given preferential consideration. The Georg-August University of Goettingen strives for improving the share of women in its workforce. Qualified women are, thus, encouraged to apply.

Applications, including a curriculum vitae, a description of the applicant's scientific background and career including teaching experience and publication record, can be submitted within 4 weeks of the publication of this announcement to
