

Applications Invited for the Iowa Pork Foundation Graduate Fellowship

Thanks to the generosity of the Iowa Pork Foundation, the ISU College of Agriculture is pleased to announce a new graduate fellowship in the amount of $2500. This fellowship is designed to provide support to a student studying at the MS or PhD level in the ISU College of Agriculture who is conducting thesis or dissertation research related to the pork industry. Applicants must be:

- 1) majoring in the areas of Animal Science, Agricultural Economics, Food Science, Microbiology, Agricultural Engineering or other disciplines that contribute to the pork industry
- 2) US citizens
- 3) able to demonstrate financial need

Completed applications will include:

- 1) a cover letter stating:
  - a. the research topic being pursued
  - b. the planned use of the funds (to attend a professional meeting, assist with publication costs, etc.),
  - c. an indication of what support the student is already receiving
- 2) a copy of the applicant's vita
- 3) an endorsement by the applicant's major professor

Completed applications are due by May 31, 2007, and should be sent to:

Associate Dean for Academic and Global Programs
College of Agriculture
134 Curtiss Hall
Iowa State University

(e-mail applications are acceptable: dacker@iastate.edu <mailto:dacker@iastate.edu> )

The winner will be selected and notified by July 15, 2007. The award will be made during the Fall semester by the Iowa Pork Foundation.
