

NBES GOES TO HAWAII!

The National Business and Economics Society

Announces

A Call for Papers

The ninth annual conference of the National Business & Economics Society will be held March 5 through March 8, 2008 at the Sheraton Moana Surfrider in Hawaii. NBES is a multi-disciplinary academic association which focuses on promoting interdisciplinary research of both a theoretical and practical nature. It includes scholars from the fields of Finance, Accounting, Marketing, Management, Information Systems, Operations Research, Economics, Public Administration, Psychology and related areas. Our goal is to broaden the expertise of business school academics and other professionals by promoting access to research and ideas in all disciplines. See our web site at www.nbesonline.com

Submission Requirement: One page abstract of the research paper in Word e-mailed to info@nbesonline.com, or hard copy to NBES, P.O. Box 770136, Lakewood, Ohio 44107 or fax to 216-226-7990 (line is not dedicated, fax after the message). E-mail submissions will receive prompt consideration. Questions should be addressed to any of the above. Please note that co-authors may not be added after a paper is accepted.

Submission Deadline: July 1st, 2007

Organization Fees: No fee for abstract submission and consideration. Conference fees are $325 plus $90 annual membership fee ($415 total) for all attending authors. The $90 annual membership fee is required for inclusion in the conference proceedings for co-authors not attending the conference.

Hotel Rooms: A block of rooms is being reserved at the historic Sheraton Moana Surfrider, Waikiki Beach, Hawaii. This is a world class hotel and resort that is very popular year-round. Room rates will be $205 plus 11.4% tax. Information on air fares and rental cars will be forthcoming.
