

Assistant Professor of Economics

Penn State Harrisburg School of Business Administration, seeks applicants for a tenure track, Assistant Professor of Economics to teach undergraduate and graduate courses. Primary teaching areas are microeconomics, macroeconomics, international finance, and other economics and related courses as needed. Faculty are expected to pursue scholarly research and publication, participate in curriculum development, advise students and serve on committees. This tenure-track appointment is effective Fall 2010. It is expected that candidates have an earned doctorate in economics from an AACSB accredited school. ABDs who expect to earn their doctorate degree by August 2010 will be considered.

For additional details, please visit our website at <http://www.hbg.psu.edu>. Please submit letter of application, resume, and the names, addresses, and phone numbers of four references to: Chair, Economics Faculty Search Committee, c/o Mrs. Dorothy Guy, Penn State Harrisburg, Box: PSU-30750, 777 W. Harrisburg Pike, Middletown, PA 17057-4898. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Penn State is committed to affirmative action, equal opportunity and the diversity of its workforce.