

UNIVERSITY OF PITTSBURGH, DEPT. OF ECONOMICS is searching for faculty appointments effective Sept. 2009, pending budgetary approval. We seek excellence in teaching and research. Salary, scholarly assistance and benefits are competitive. Complementarities with the research activities of current faculty are essential. The University of Pittsburgh is an Affirmative Action, Equal Opportunity Employer. Women and members of minority groups under-represented in academia are especially encouraged to apply.

ASSOCIATE or FULL PROFESSOR

Job Code 3148 – Across Fields

Associate or Full Professor across fields.

For a distinguished colleague with an international reputation and intellectual leadership.

OPEN RANK - Full Professor, Associate Professor or a Tenure Track position

Job Code 2648 – Econometrics

All areas within econometrics are open for consideration.

Job Code 6428 – Experimental Economics

The successful applicant will be an applied economist with research interests spanning behavioral and experimental economics and theory who will complement existing faculty working in these areas.

Job Code 1778 – Macroeconomics

All areas within macroeconomics are open for consideration.

Contact and application information is available on our Web site at <http://www.econ.pitt.edu/> under the Employment Opportunities link. Deadline for application is November 15, 2008. Review of applications begins on October 15.

Interviews will be held at the Annual AEA/ASSA meeting.