

POSITION DESCRIPTION
DEPARTMENT OF RESOURCE ECONOMICS
UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS AMHERST

- Title: Assistant Professor of Industrial Organization/Managerial Economics
- Appointment: Academic Year (9-month)—Tenure Track
- Available: September 1, 2009
- Application: Review of applications will begin on October 15, 2008. All materials should be received by that date for priority consideration. The search will continue until the position is filled. We will be conducting preliminary interviews of candidates at the ASSA meetings in January.
- The Position: The Department of Resource Economics at the University of Massachusetts Amherst invites applications for a tenure-track assistant professor position. We seek an industrial organization economist whose research focus is on managerial economics. We seek expertise in game theory applied to decision making at the firm and government level. Other desired areas of interest include economics of the food supply chain and related safety issues, international trade, and experimental economics. Teaching responsibilities will include both graduate and undergraduate courses. Undergraduate courses would include offerings in managerial economics.
- Qualifications: Ph.D. in agricultural or resource economics, economics, or a related field as of September 1, 2009 and expertise in industrial organization and managerial economics.
- Salary: Competitive and based on qualifications.
- The Setting: The Department of Resource Economics has 15 faculty and about 20 graduate students (one-third Ph.D.). We place special emphases on faculty-student interaction and cooperation among faculty. We share a fundamental commitment to teach and attract a diverse student body. The University is part of the 5-College Consortium in the beautiful Pioneer Valley of Western Massachusetts, with excellent social, cultural, and recreational amenities in a town and rural setting. We are 2 hours from Boston and 3 hours from New York City.
- To Apply: Please mail or email (pdf format only) a letter of application, curriculum vitae, graduate transcript, and writing samples, and arrange to have 3 letters of recommendation sent directly to:
