

Position Description
Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics
University of Wisconsin-Madison

Environmental and Natural Resource Economist

The Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics (AAE) is accepting applications for a tenure-track position at the assistant professor level in the area of environmental and natural resource economics. Contingent on funding, we anticipate the position will be available August of 2010. The applicant will have the opportunity to conduct research and teach two courses per year in the Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics, and serve as an advisor to undergraduate and graduate students, as well as provide normal university service. A Ph.D. in economics/agricultural economics/public policy is required.

Applications should be sent to Ken Shapiro, Chair, Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics, 434 Taylor Hall, 427 Lorch Street, University of Wisconsin, Madison, WI 53706. Please include a letter of application, curriculum vitae and samples of publications. Three letters of recommendation should be sent directly to the Chair. Applications will be reviewed beginning mid December 2009. We will be at the ASSA annual meetings January 3-5, 2010 in Atlanta, GA. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled. UW-Madison is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. For more on AAE, see: (<http://www.aae.wisc.edu>).
